

2005 Categories

Health & Healing

This woman is honoured for her contribution to the development, growth and healing of individuals in the community.

Women Impacting Political Issues

This woman is honoured for making a difference through her involvement in issues of a political nature on a local or broader scale.

Women in Print

This woman is honoured for published contributions in written media. For example: journals, curriculum, poetry, literature, history, etc.

Entrepreneurship

This woman has achieved success in entrepreneurial endeavours, business, trades and/or the professions in private, public or not-for-profit organizations.

Young Woman of Distinction

This young woman, less than 30 years of age, is honoured for making a significant contribution to the life of her community and for demonstrating a capacity for leadership.

Open Category

This woman deserves to be honoured for her expertise in her chosen field which is not represented by any of the other award categories.